

'Feelgood' Thursday Newsletter

19th October 2017

Normanby Bake Off - On Monday 16th October, we had our annual bake off. Every cake that was entered was absolutely fantastic and not to mention tasted delicious. The winner of the children's entry was Oliver Potter with his amazing hedgehog cake, and the winner of the adults entry was Poppy Wilson. Each will take home £10 prize money and an apron.

Glee Festival - A pitch perfect performance from 80 of our children from Normanby Glee Club. Rehearsing every spare minute of the day really allowed our children to reach their full potential. The audience's reaction was priceless and thanks to all who supported us at St Nicolas Church Guisborough.

3 Sleepover - Year 3 had a very successful and rewarding sleepover last Friday night. The highlights were the night line, camp fire and marshmallows. Thanks to all children and staff who attended and the positive feedback from parents and carers.

Y1/Y2 Multi Skills Invasion - Good luck to all of our Y1 Mrs Musgrave's and Y2 Mrs Foden's classes who are competing against visiting schools in the Multi-skills invasion competition this afternoon.

The Queen - Elizabeth from Nursery had wrote to the Queen about her potty training and received a reply from the Queen!. Very proud moment for both Elizabeth and Mummy.
