Brand New Book Swap

On the 1st of March, 2018, World Book day is taking place across the nation! We asked a year 6 pupil for their opinion. They stated that they think it was a good idea (the book swap)

'because you get to read books you have never read before!'

After, we asked whether they were partaking in the book swap which they excitedly said yes as this was a fantastic opportunity to read a wide range of new books. Finally, the Normanby News reporters asked what they think the year 6 teacher's favourite authors were? They predicted that:

Mrs Pentney 's favourite would be a Roald Dahl classic, as for Mrs Brallisford it would probably be R.G Palacio (the author of wonder) and without a doubt that Mr Drage finds great pleasure in reading Morris Gleitzman's 'Once' .

Remember we are not dressing up for World Book Day this year! We do however have an amazing day which will inspire many! We're looking forward to March the 1st.
