

Meet Our RRSA Leaders

In September, every class at Normanby voted for a Rights Respecting School Award (RRSA) leader. The RRSA is a group lead by students ranging from Years 3 to 6. These leaders are also supported by Miss Dixon. The group regularly meet up on lunchtimes (fortnightly). The group discuss many important articles which are vital to keeping our school amazing! The RRSA students and Miss Dixon are also planning an assembly during this half term to tell you about all of the hard work they have been doing since September! Remember that RRSA leaders can also give out Golden Tickets to students showing respect to each other and also to students who are being friendly to one another around school.

Earlier this week, the Normanby News Team spoke with Miss Dixon and a RRSA leader. The RRSA leader had quoted that:

'I like being a member as you get to represent the school and your peers'.

Miss Dixon also proudly added that:

'There are only ten leaders at the current moment, but it feels like the whole school are taking part! (RRSA pictured right).

Comic Club Craze

Late in the autumn term, a group of Y5 boys were specially handpicked by Mrs Foden and Miss Alderson to join the Normanby Primary Comic Club. These selected super fans have spent their Wednesday lunchtimes reading through a variety of comics. Mrs Foden told Normanby News that:

'At first, some of the boys had never read a comic before! Although now it's hard to get them to put them down'.

The Normanby News team did attempt to interview the comic club members however they were far too focussed on their comics! Charming...

Mrs Foden however, stated that other comic fans across the school will have plenty to look forward to as there is going to be a comic based assembly as well as a Comic Con Day for the whole school this term!
